

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION - DEFINING YOUR PROJECT

Answer the following questions in order to define what you would like to do with a scholarship and how you could make the most of it.

If you want to study in France in French language, mind that it's important to write your project in French.

- What do you want to study? Why? How would it be useful for your future?

I want to study because

.....
.....

- Why do you apply for a scholarship?

I want to apply for a scholarship because

.....
.....

- Why do you chose France?

I would like to study in France because

.....
.....

- What is your professional project?

When I come back to Myanmar, I would like to work as a

.....
.....

- How would studying in France help you reach this goal?

Studying in France would help me develop skills in/to

.....

.....

- How would my professional project benefit from this experience?

Such skills would allow me to

.....

.....

If you were able to answer all these questions, you can now prepare your application and start looking for and contacting French universities in the field of studies you have chosen. You can download the standard contact email.